The company is registered as a charity and limited by guarantee and its directors are its trustees for the purpose of charity law and throughout this report are collectively referred to as the trustees.

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 August 2021. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015). This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives of the company according to its Articles of Association are to promote, maintain, improve and advance the education of the public in the arts and science of music, opera, ballet, drama, film, photography, literature, paintings, drawing and sculpture, in the presentation of concerts, performances, exhibitions and other activities.

Principal Activity

The principal activity of the company in the period under review was that of the promotion and performance of artistic and cultural activities. During the year a number of fundraising events were organised to generate income and raise the profile of the Arts Centre.

Risk management

The major risks to which the company is exposed, as identified by the directors/trustees, have been reviewed and systems have been established to mitigate those risks.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Arts Centre's aims and objectives and in the planning of future activities.

Shaftesbury Arts Centre

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The main activities of the Arts Centre have continued to be in-house Music and Drama performances; room hirings; art exhibitions in the Gallery; bar and catering; live streaming of films and events; externally booked theatre, dance and live music; films; and other events (mainly fundraising).

The Arts Centre is also used for and by many community groups including poetry, traditional dance and ukulele groups, an acappella choir, music for babies and toddlers, and drama groups both separately for children, young people and adults, and also a mixed group for all ages. The Centre also runs creative writing, photography and six drawing and painting groups and provides the venue for biennial Dorset Arts Week exhibitions. The gallery is open for artists to hire and display their works, and twice a year the Arts Centre has its own exhibitions when artists from the town and surrounding area are encouraged to become part of a group exhibition.

Chairman's Report 2020-2021

The financial year started with a feeling of hope.

The team equipped the building with all the COVID Safe aids deemed necessary and a programme of films and Live Streaming was arranged to take us up to Christmas. The Front of House Team was drilled in crowd management and a Covid safe seating plan was put in place. The small audiences were delighted to be able to return to the Arts Centre and were very grateful for all the efforts we had made.

Rehearsals for The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe steamed ahead during the autumn, with two parallel casts (in case of illness) but by the New year it was evident that Covid numbers had increased, and the show could not go on.

All praise must go to the production team continuing to rehearse two casts on Zoom throughout the Spring and early summer, and the show finally went on stage in July.

Whenever possible, the Gallery opened its doors to artists willing to come at short notice, and when forced to close, we are grateful to the Gallery team for turning the window into an exhibition to be viewed from the Street.

Thanks to a team from Music and Drama, the Arts Centre announced its presence and the intention to reopen with a magnificent Variety Show on the stage at Gold Hill Fair at Barton Hill. This included representatives from as many of the groups as possible including the Youth Group, Bell Street School of Dance, the writing, and poetry groups and was attended by a large audience on a pleasant summer evening.

The brief season ended with The Arts Centre playing host to The Fringe on the August Bank Holiday weekend. The stage in the main auditorium was used, the seating was socially distanced and for safety, all seats were ticketed.

This was a joyful climax to a difficult year.

Our income streams, throughout the year were greatly diminished, but thanks to emergency grants from Arts Council England and Dorset Council we were able to meet our necessary expenditure. We also received a number of small donations and a legacy that have helped us to build up our reserves.

The Arts Centre relies on volunteers for everything it does from Box office to Bar, from Management to Marketing, Room hire to repertoire and everything in between. Inevitably volunteers retire or move away from time to time and we would like offer sincere thanks to all those who have done such sterling work in the past.

During the summer we had a big recruitment drive for new volunteers, advertising online, through the press and on the radio podcast, This is Alfred and were lucky enough to receive a host of new volunteers, many of whom have taken on key roles with new blood and fresh ideas.

Throughout the year, many of our groups have had to close and daytime classes be discontinued. However, the Youth Group has continued to flourish and rehearse on Zoom, for what should have been their summer show.

We now look forward to Bussy Malone on stage in the Autumn and we hope, a more normal year.

Jenny Parker, Chairman

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

2020-21 was a difficult year as the Covid-19 pandemic continued to disrupt activity. The Gallery was able to open for periods during the year, and Music and Drama were able to put on their socially distanced The Lion, Witch and the Wardrobe. Government grants and the balance of an Arts Council grant to tide the business over the restrictions were received (£28,563), and a claim for loss of profits due to Covid-19 restrictions was also successful (£32,617). Donations and legacies received during the year were £203,960.

There were no fundraising activities during the year.

The Cash at bank increased to £353,421 (£118,460 at 31 August 2020) as a result of the Gallery maintaining a healthy profit, the substantial donations received, other grants and insurance claim received, and containing all overhead and capital expenditure.

The loans taken out to purchase and refurbish no 11, Bell St stood at £18,590 (£41,585 at 31/08/2020) and are on target to be fully repaid during 2022/23.

The charitable company has negative free reserves of £72,047 as at 31 August 2021 (2020 - negative free reserves of £535,612). The Trustees consider this level of reserves to be sufficient to deliver charitable objectives for the next twelve months. Free reserves are calculated by deducting fixed assets from the unrestricted (and undesignated) reserves held at the year-end. The Trustees consider the charity to be a going concern, a revaluation reserve of £335k is held in respect of 13 Bell Street and like many art centres Shaftesbury Arts Centre has been significantly impacted by Covid-19.

Operations

The main income-generating activities of the Arts Centre were the Gallery and the Music and Drama production of The Lion Witch and the Wardrobe. All other activities were severely curtailed as a result of Covid-19 restrictions.

Activity	Income	Cost	Contribution
Music and Drama (in-house productions)	£4,903	£1,682	£3,221
Room Hire (including % of ticket sales when applicable)	£980	£54	£926
Gallery (net of payments to artists)	£13,370	£303	£13,067
Bar and Catering	£1,701	£1,078	£623
Live Streaming	£1,876	£514	£1,362
External Bookings (professional theatre and music)	£1,000	£0	£1,000
Film Shows (excluding Film Society membership)	£549	£335	£214
Total	£24,379	£3,966	£20,413

The decline in the annual membership subscriptions to £7,282, from £11,051 in 2019/20, and £15,593 in 2018-19, shows that the Covid-19 pandemic had a significant impact upon members renewals.

Reserves policy and Covid-19 Restrictions

Despite Covid-19, the Arts Centre aims to maintain reserves sufficient to allow it to operate for the next year. The receipt of the Government and Arts Council grants, together with the continued opening of the Gallery, and the gradual reintroduction of socially distanced events should enable the company to continue trading for the foreseeable future. Risk assessments are undertaken for all events and attendance numbers are therefore severely restricted, impacting greatly on the income generated. All costs are being strictly budgeted and monitored.
